AMELIA EARHART MEMORIAL RESEARCH SCHOLAR GRANTS

- Grants to scholars and scientists to add to the world's knowledge of women in aviation and aerospace.
- Submission procedures and deadlines on this Fact Sheet do not apply to the Research Scholar Grant. For information and application package go to the 99s website: www.ninety-nines.org/aemsf.html or, contact Dr. Jacque Boyd Jacqueboyd@yahoo.com or 575-377-3166.

NEW PILOT AWARDS

- Provides up to $1500 towards initial flight training for Future Woman Pilot or Associate Members who need financial assistance to become licensed pilots. May be used for any initial (first ever) pilot certificate, including Recreational Pilot, Sport Pilot, or Private Pilot certificate, or non-U.S. equivalent, in any aircraft. This training may be in any aircraft type appropriate to the primary pilot certificate sought, such as airplane, glider, hot air balloon, etc.
- You must have soloed, and, if required for the pilot certificate sought, must have a current medical certificate and must have passed the written exam.
- There is no length of membership requirement, but you must belong to a Chapter if in a Section with Chapters.

Notes for ALL Applicants

- In any given year, 99s Members, including current or past scholarship winners, may apply for any one scholarship or award for which they are eligible, and may be awarded scholarships in consecutive years. However, the Fund is intended to extend opportunities to as many members as possible, and not to provide one individual member's training from start to finish.
- Complete and official Applicant Eligibility Requirements and Instructions are in the application package. Use the Applicant Checklist to follow up at every step.
- Review the application forms to confirm eligibility. Select the one scholarship appropriate to your circumstances and goal. Applications will be available by late summer in the public area of the 99s website in PDF format at www.Ninety-Nines.org/aemsf.html.
- All applications are due in December and winners are notified by approximately May of the following year.
